

Published based on A Travelers Guide To The Planets 5 Best Destinations For Skiing

A Travelers Guide To The Planets 5 Best Destinations For Skiing

One of the most popular sports enjoyed by people of all ages and abilities is the sport of skiing; and, in fact, this sport is so popular that many travelers actually plan their entire vacation around this activity. There are many places around the world that provide top-notch slopes and scenery, and we are going to highlight just a few. But remember, you are going to have to know how to get a U S passport to visit these places, since international travel requires a passport. Online agencies can help you with this process quickly and easily, so let's get started with a few suggestions for your itinerary.

The first location we want to mention is Whistler Blackcomb in the British Columbia. Voted time and time again the best ski destination in North America, it is a place enjoyed by not only North Americans but by ski buffs from all over the world. Whistler Blackcomb presents the opportunity to ski the greatest vertical drop in North America, which is certainly a huge attraction to the adventure seeking skier but the resort is also known for its fine food so after you work up an appetite on the slopes, you can feast on world class dining as well.

Kitzbuhel is another famous skiing site and is located in the fascinating country of Austria. Kitzbuhel can be considered one of your traditionally alpine towns with its quaint architecture and people yet can boast one of the most luxurious resorts in the world. Known as the Pearl of the Alps, Kitzbuhel serves as an irresistible attraction for many a world class skier and has done so since 1892.

Cortina, Italy is another popular ski destination as well as a historically and culturally rich city. The skiing in Cortina is exceptional, and it has a film history to prove it. One of the most famous ski chase scenes takes place on these mountains, and they have also played a role in films like The Pink Panther, Cliffhanger, and Krull. This location was also home to one of the world's first ski resorts.

Skiing in Espace Killy, France promises to keep you busy. Over 200 miles of runs are available to you to ski, and the famous resorts found in the mountains only enhance the experience. The village of Val d'Isère is located at about six thousand feet above sea level, and the highest point is about 11,300, meaning long runs and plenty of time on the slopes is no problem. The village itself holds an air of tradition, full of quaint restaurants, ski shops, and old fashioned buildings.

You can't speak of skiing and not include highlighting Zermatt Ski Resort in Switzerland. Thought to be one of the most sought after ski vacation destinations in the world, the lack of automobiles in the city provides an opportunity for relaxation and enjoyment after a long, hard day of skiing. Streets lined with shops and cafes complete this perfect Swiss vacation picture.

Nothing will put a crimp in your international vacation plans quicker than a damaged American passport; so whether your passport is damaged, lost, or just expired, you can correct this problem quickly and easily by visiting one of the passport agencies available to you online and as close as your home computer. These companies will take all the worry and confusion out of the processes related to passports and leave you plenty of time to plan your vacation.

Many locations exist around the globe are beckoning you to an experience in world renowned skiing; but you can't travel internationally without knowing how to get a passport. Online passport agencies can assist you with prompt, secure services to replace a damaged passport or one that just needs renewing. Check out some of these companies to get your passport needs met, and get your plans underway for a world class skiing experience.

You can also find this article published on A Travelers Guide To The Planets 5 Best Destinations For Skiing, and on the tag pages chase scenes, cortina italy, Kitzbuhel, ski, ski chase, time.