The Celebration Never Ends In Rio De Janeiro, Brazil

No city is quite as infamous as Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The beautiful people, landscapes, and cities create a charm that simply cannot be found anywhere else in the world. If you are looking to take a vacation that is exotic and exciting, look no further than Rio. Of course, in order to travel outside the United States, you will need a passport. Online, you can find sites that specialize in processing your American passports quickly, and all you need to do is fill out a passport application.

These online applications have made the entire passport process so much easier. Even if you have a online passport renewal emergency, these sites can solve it. You can get your passport anywhere from one day to two weeks, meaning no matter when you want to travel, you can have your passport packed and ready.

One of the best ways to experience the Brazilian culture is by participating in some of the world-famous festivals that take place in the city. Of course, the most famous of these festivals is Carnival. Beautifully ornate costumes, choreographed dance, and crazy parties in the street characterize this festival, and because it's globally regarded as one of the best parties in the world, experiencing it for yourself is a must. Other festivals include the more traditional Cordao do Bola Preta, the Simpatia e Quase Amo, and the Banda de Ipanema.

Rio is also known to have some of the most beautiful beaches in the world. Two of these world famous beaches are Ipanema Beach and Copacabana Beach. The beautiful white sand and crystal blue water confirm the worthiness for this recognition.

If you are fortunate enough to visit this beautiful city, you must not miss the well known landmarks and monument to be found here. Corcovado Mountain is home to the famous Cristo Redentor statue translated "Christ the Redeemer". Standing 125 feet and named one of the new Seven Wonders of the World, this imposing likeness watches over the city. Another mountain to be visited is Pao de Acucar or Sugarloaf Mountain which provides beautiful views of the city.

There are a number of beautiful and unique neighborhoods located in Rio and they are well worth your investigation. Bohemian Lapa, traditional Santa Teresa, majestic Barra de Tijuca and quaint Ilha Fiscal are just a sampling of the areas that would be worthy of a walking or biking tour. Each of these neighborhoods has its own personality and the experience will certainly prove to be a memorable part of any vacation.

Natural parks also make for a great way to spend a few hours or even an entire day. The Jardim Botânico is one of the more famous, with exotic plants from all over the world. Easily accessible and breathtakingly beautiful, it definitely deserves at least a quick walk-through on your trip. And if the beautiful, lush, vegetation isn't worth it, maybe the adorable monkeys swinging from the trees are!

Traveling is such a privilege, and it's undoubtedly something that should be a part of everyone's life. So many colorful and interesting cities exist around the globe, and Rio de Janeiro is definitely among the most intriguing. Just be sure to fill out your passport application. Remember the online sites that streamline the process if you are faced with a expedited passport renewal emergency. Once you have your passport, the whole world is open to you.
